

All Gigs Event Staff Wanted: 1. Administration/Event Planner 2. Commissioned Sales 3. Speakers 4. Ballroom dancers/Actors

1. Administrative/Event Planner: Unique seminar producer/speaker needs an organized and quick thinker for fun upcoming events. You need to have experience in being a "right-hand" person for the speaker or event leader. You need to be good at keeping track of multiple projects within the event.

2. Commissioned Sales/Finders Fee: A proven track record and/or the ability to find and book events is necessary. Training in our program provided. This is for the seasoned professional. Generous partner commissions available.

3. Speakers: you need to have extensive experience in presenting the four main personality styles/temperaments. We have arrangements that will comply with your unique situation. Pay based on experience and event scope.

4. Ballroom dancers/Actors: dancers need to be pros or be intermediate/advanced. You must be proficient in one, or up to all four dances. This could be American or International styles. Actors: skit work, could be with audience members. Good at taking direction and improvisation. Comedians welcome, too. Need all ages/types men/women/kids. Must know or be willing to learn about the four personality styles, you will become one or all of them.

If you are familiar with the concept of different personality styles, or temperaments, this would be a bonus. (Myers-Briggs, DiSC, social styles, etc.) Also, if you are a speaker and have experience in this, speaking gigs could be available.

It's like DiSC Personality meets Dancing with the Stars! (One of our next seminars would have a DWTS dance teacher. Louis Van Amstel from the first few seasons is in negotiation with us and is interested in our program.)

We will have live events and some events will be taped for a DVD release, so theater production would be helpful also, or stage management.

Pay would be based on experience and the complexity of the event. We are generous and might be able to provide commission on top of the pay if possible. (There are products to be sold at events.)

We also would pay a finders fee if you brought our seminar to a client you knew.) Pay would be negotiated at time of employment as an hourly or project based. (hourly could be from $15-$40+)

We aren't just looking for employees or contract people. We are looking for people who are looking for a "home" and who believe in our program. Partner opportunities could also be available down the line.

Events could be 1-4+ per month about 1-4 hours per event plus prep time of several hours before.

Email us for more detailed information. Please respond via email with your resume, and/or a letter or a link to your website and a recent picture if you have one. No phone calls, please.
